Do The Right Thing

When you see bullying what do you do? If you were the victim what would you do if you got bullied? If you do nothing then you should tell somebody. By telling somebody you are not being a snitch you are being a friend. Bullying is not okay it's a form of fighting, aggressiveness, and intimidate.

You shouldn't bully and should enforce bullying. Bullies have caused people to commit suicide and it have caused 4,400 people to die because of bullies. Serial killers were frequently build through direct and indirect methods as children and adolescents. Bullying is not fun or entertaining it was caused because people has either a bad romodel or a bad life.

If someone bullies you here are the options you can do. Ignore or either walk away from the bully. If the bully is going to get physical go to an adult to get help. If none of this works either tell a parent, teacher, and/or friend. This is why you shouldn't bully and what to do when you are getting bullied.

The Right Thing

The first thing you should do is to tell your teacher or a trusted adult. They can help you figure out what's going on and make sure you're safe. It's important to talk to someone you trust about what's happening.

Next, you should try to ignore the bullies. Bullies often look for a reaction, so if you don't react, they might stop. But if they continue, you should tell an adult again.

It's also important to be kind to yourself. Bullies can make you feel bad, but you should remember that you are a good person. Don't let them make you feel like you're not good enough.

If you're being bullied, you should also try to be confident. Bullies often like to see you being scared or sad. If you act confident, they might be less likely to bully you.

Finally, you should always stand up for yourself. If you see someone else being bullied, you should help them. It's important to be a good person and help others when you can.
