PRESIDENTIAL SEARCH COMMITTEE (FACULTY AND STAFF - UMASS/BOSTON)

November 12, 1969

In conjunction with similar groups at Amherst and Worcester, three committees at UMass/Boston are charged with the nomination of candidates for President of the University. The Faculty-Administration Committee wishes to solicit the names of individuals of merit from their colleagues. In addition to figures of national prominence such as Sargent Schriver and John Gardner from the area of public affairs and Clark Kerr from the academic world, the Committee wishes to learn of individuals of lesser acclaim whose accomplishments warrent serious consideration for this position.

Suggestions should be sent to:

The Committee
c/o Mr. Lipke
Biology Department
Rm. 1-1212

by December 5, 1969, and should include a brief resumé of the nominee's record.
