PROFESSOR LUIS RICARDO ALONSO, SECOND IN 1969 NADAL PRIZE

It is with great pleasure that we announce the award of second place to Professor Luis Ricardo Alonso's novel, El Candidato, in the 1969 Nadal Prize. The jury of five sitting in Barcelona, received 127 novels. In the final, El Candidato received two votes for first. Three votes went to Garcia Pavon's Las hermanas coloradas. Both novels will be published in the Nadal series. Professor Alonso's first novel, Territorio Libre, was published in 1966 shortly after his resignation as Cuban Ambassador to London.

SNOW EMERGENCY

In case of heavy snow or other emergencies seriously hampering transportation, classes will be cancelled at the University. Announcement of cancellation will be carried beginning shortly after 6:30 A.M. on the following radio stations: WBZ, WCOP, WEEI, WEZE, WHDH, WRKO. Only closings are announced. The absence of announcement means that regular classes will be held.
