How has violence affected my life?
Violence affected my life because

I became aggressive. In fifth grade I had watched violence movies and when my mom that I'm not allow to watch that, I got mad and started to talk back at my mom violently. This is one evidence violence has affected my life. Another evidence that violence affected my life is that it makes my life terrible because I'm not my self. The last evidence is what I can do about youth violence? while I would do is show what must be if you are violence. how violence changes somebody is that you aren't and if they listen they will know because this happen to me. how violence hurt somebody. How does violence help us? violence is the main purpose why we fight to give and would change life as we speak during the war of british
