Honoring Mt. Hope Cemetery’s Chinese Burial Grounds: Asian American Studies Program with the Coalition for Asian Pacific American Youth (CAPAY) and the Chinese Historical Society of New England (CHSNE)

Asian American Studies Program, University of Massachusetts Boston

Chinese Historical Society of New England

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umb.edu/ocp_posters

Part of the Asian American Studies Commons, Asian History Commons, Community Engagement Commons, and the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation
http://scholarworks.umb.edu/ocp_posters/121
Summary/Abstract
Honoring the Chinese burial grounds of Boston's Mt. Hope Cemetery has been the signature focus of the Chinese Historical Society of New England (CHSNE) for two decades. Throughout that time, students from the Asian American Studies Program and the Coalition for Asian Pacific American Youth (CAPAY) at UMass Boston have been deeply involved with service-learning, documentation, and education projects to connect younger generations with the site's historical importance and contemporary meaning.

Results/Impacts
In Fall 2007, students in AsAmSt 423 (Boston's Asian American Communities) compiled an initial listing of 1,500 English and Chinese names with accompanying digital photographs that were matched with official cemetery paper records.

In 2010-2011, Laura Ng, a UMB graduate student in Historical Archaeology created a searchable, relational, digital database of the records for easier community access.

Conclusion/Next Steps
Boston's Asian American communities need to work collectively in preserving history. The cemetery cannot be maintained just by the older generations; we need to work on educating and training the younger generations to pay attention to their history.

— Janet Vo, AsAmSt major, 2007

Approaches and Methods
In 2007-2008 CHSNE, CAPAY, and the AsAmSt Program were awarded a prestigious Save our History grant from The History Channel, and produced a curriculum resource guide for educators based on Mt Hope's Chinese Burial Grounds, along with three original digital stories reflecting youth, family, and community perspectives.

Goals and Objectives

Mt. Hope
A deserted ground that no one wants
A waste of land
Some spirits haunt
Forgotten corner
There lays the dead of many Chinese
Unwanted, unfed
Plants are growing everywhere
A resting place
In need of care
— Lily Chan, CAPAY
August 2000

References and Resources

Mt. Hope Cemetery: 355 Walk Hill St
Mattapan, MA 02126

Chinese Historical Society of New England:
www.chsne.org

Additional Partnerships, Interests, Information and/or Contacts

UMass Boston Asian American Studies Program
Wheatley Building, 2nd floor, Room 97
www.umb.edu/asamst

Chinese Historical Society of New England:
www.chsne.org

Mt. Hope Cemetery: 355 Walk Hill St
Mattapan, MA 02126

Text and photos: Peter Kiang, 2013