Violence generates nothing but false notions
An alternative to express one's true emotions Provoked by those that do wrong Committed by all, weak or strong A road to great pain and sorrow always to be found today and tomorrow

Violence is a war that is fought everyday Unless someone has something to say, to bring it to an end
But who has the courage to lend Shall it be you or I, or shall we turn the blind eye

Violence is a shadow that shrouds my past, for I was constantly harassed In school or wherever I went trapped in a realm of torment Forcing me to cower away and hide Soon to cause my demise

Who will cease this everlasting war
Do I have to say more?
For everybody is accountable, for this event so incredible So speak up against violence, to end this imbalance!
