I was defined china and porcelain
Inlaid glass flowers and gently spoken
Fragile in doe-eyed delicacy
Pleading and begging not to be broken

I loved him with total forgiveness
Did not, could not, would not understand
The dark chaos mood of lability
The spontaneous violence of his hand

Blue and dark bruises indecorously swelled
Question marks about tear brimmed eyes
And I wept, despaired in confusion
Smashed and grabbed by wheresoever and why's

How can he dream to hurt me so much?
The brutish malediction of his touch
How could he stand to hurt me so much?
When he knew I loved him so much

And I know there's no sense to be had
When I look to the heavens above
Just the sad and lonely of the matter
You can never choose whom to love
