Violence has affected my life differently. Where I am from violence is always around us. Even when people walk at night because they are scared of losing their lives. People are scared of coming out of their house at night even in day light. When you see a gang walking behind you or in front you feel scared to your stomach and you are about to enter trouble. In the past violence was there but not like this generation. They used to us fist now they use knives and guns. People will lose their lives over little things like sneakers. I have seen people get shot and die. This generation needs some people like Martin Luther King and Mahatma Gandhi to lead them in the right direction. Peace is what we should live in and no violence.

There are alot of youth violence in the world. People want things they will take it. The young generation of people cause violence over money, drugs and stress. The preasure from their family and friends. The ~~simplest~~^{simple} things these days you will die for. People will even Kill you for fun. Violence is all over the world and you will see it. The neighwood you live in will affect you. If there gangs that will show children guns and drugs. If a child knows that he can get a gun or sell drugs that will definetly affect their lives and change them.

The older people can help to make sure there is a next generation. The youth violence began when drugs and guns can be applied to these children. I can help as well if I see a child doing drugs I am going to stop him. If you see anything opening in your neighbourhood please call the police and the police can help as well. The gangs try to keep the children out of the gangs because that is a new generation of gang member. Your friends will be doing something illegal some time. The young generation is killing most of the people. We should keep our earth clean of violence. We should put a stop to this violence and crime. We this generation need some leaders to lead us to peace.

If we could talk some sense in these children.

We should understand we should live in peace and harmony.

The older people where hear before us and they are going live past us if we do not stop killing each other and live in peace how they do. I can talk to some kids in my neighbourhood not to go down that path because we are the generation know and we should stop youth violence. Drugs, gangs, guns should get of the streets so every body can feel some and do not feel troubled. People intimidate others and scared of them that should and we should trust in God and piece.

If we can stop youth violence we can eventually stop crime because that is the younger generation coming up.

They should not be breaking the laws people should speak up. We need leader and I am going to be one and I will lead this generation in peace and we should live in God.

God believes in peace and I do too why not the children of this generation. Youth violence should stop and will stop.
