Violence

Violence is a bad thing. Violence can endanger you and others. I believe that violence is bad and that it has to stop. Violence can lead you into bad things. It can lead you into jail. Violence is when you are hurting yourself and others. Such as shooting yourself or someone else. This is why I believe that violence is bad and that it has to stop.

Ways that can lead to violence: Playing violent video games can lead to violence. Why, because seeing it happen allows you to get used to it and not have the fear of the game anymore. Also sometimes when someone is trying to get you mad you feel the urge to make them stop. You try to ask them to stop but they don't. And might do something that you will regret. These are some ways that can lead to violence and why.

Tip:

Think about what you are doing and how that person might be feeling.
