What are the causes of youth violence?

The causes of youth violence is that it can cause people to be sad, For example when I was 7 years old I saw this mean person at a store and I saw how violent he was to his daughter.

Another thing that causes youth violence is that when you bully other children and leave them bruises.

For example In the news I saw how this adult was hurting her kids by punching them and calling them names and hitting them with a belt very hard until they were bleeding and not talking but crying alot. My third thing that causes youth violence is that when you get punched in the face by someone and they leave you a mark in the face that will turn purple. when I was a little girl I saw youth violence in a restaurant when a man was beating up a women and people weren't doing anything they were just watching and all I was hearing is the women screaming in pain of where the man was hitting her. The only reason the man was beating her up is because he found out that she was cheating on him and the women knew that it was a lie but the man didn't believe him and so thats why the man was beating her up just because someone told him a lie and he believed it and wasn't letting the women to talk and was just hitting her.

This example was a cause of youth violence. When people lie to you and they make you do something you don't want to do like hurt someone up by beating them up or bullying them. My last thing that causes youth violence is that when you fight over money and both people end up fighting for example when I was in kindergarden a friend told me that she saw a woman trying to kill her own son because she didn't want to take care of him anymore until people were trying to stop and were trying to convince her to not do it because then she will feel sorry about doing it and so then she stop trying and when her neighbors left, she started beating her son up just because she was mad at something and blame it on him and so after what my friend told me that, I knew that was one cause of youth violence. These were the causes of youth violence and what they could cause people like it can make them to suffer or sad.
