This is for the people, The boys and girls sitting in the class hearing your teacher reading this to you. It is for the Victims of Violences or the one who caused the Violence. Now open up your ears and listen to hear the causes of Violence.

Now all Violence start from losing one thing in life, and that is education. See without the education the person grows up with a slight chance to get a good job, which may lead to stress then poverty and lastly violence.

Now I'm not blaming it on all us teens, It's also the adults fault too. How you ask? Well think of this, take a moment and look at the social media, and then count how many violence involed things you see, Well for me that is kinda alot. Well here is the problem, the thrill of that media can some what lead few teens to the thought of murder due to curiosity. Which ends up horribly wrong.

There are more stuff like bad parenting, teens stress family problems, and other things. Now please listen! There are solutions on how to solved this, And I don't want more violence in this world! So please listen! Take the action to stop violence, don't hesitate! Only you can stop the violence! So that our future may be a brighter place for us!
