Untitled Sadness

By Robyn Blacardi

Daddy's screaming

Mommy's crying

It's almost like dreaming

But it's almost like dying

Tears falling like rivers

Turn into giant pools of water

So cold that everyone shivers

And drowning each daughter

Slowly, yet not silently

Daddy leaves

Shouting ever so violently

Our hearts are taken by thieves

Hours pass

Car pulls into the drive way

Every low on gas

My best bet is to stay away

I know it's going to start again

They begin to shout

As loud as a morning hen

And I am told to get out

I play music to suffocate the voices

To drowned

Hateful word choices

I get lost in the beautiful sound

At night

They resolve

I can sleep tight

My mind can dissolve
