Violence Essay

Scene: At the movie theater

Narrator: Four friends named, Andrew, Mark, Jamie, and Kate all went out to see a new movie. After they ordered their snacks, they went to the room where it was playing. As they walked in, a foot stuck out and tripped them. They looked for who had tripped them and saw it was a boy laughing.

Andrew: "What's the big deal?"

Boy: "Man, that was funny!"

Jamie: "Uh, no! It wasn't funny!"

Kate: "Seriously? You're childish. I don't think your mother raised you to be disrespectful."

Narrator: The suddenly stopped laughing and looked serious. He grabbed the of snacks from Mark and threw it at Andrew. The two boys started fighting, giving each other bruises and bloody noses.

Jamie: "I'm gonna go and get the security!"

Kate: "Ok, hurry!"

Narrator: Jamie runs out.

Kate: "Hey guys! Stop fighting! This is meaningless!"

Narrator: Andrew stopped fighting and ran towards the exit where Kate was.

Boy: "I'm not done with you! You're gonna pay!"

Narrator: The security rushed in and took the boy with them out the door.

Everyone: "You ok, Andrew?"

Andrew: "I guess."

Mark: "Come on, let's get out of here. We'll go to your place and do something else."
