Violence has affected my life by making me care alot more about safety. This happens by the people around me, starting up gangs. Since that was happening there were gangs attacks in my neighborhood. People from other places that were in gangs wanted to attack the gang near me. Also I don't like people dying so that's why I really care about safety.

There is alot of ways young people can start violence. Most common is being a bully and getting into gangs. Lots of young people die at a young age. Sometimes they can't leave gangs and end up dying by their own gang member, gang attack or even committing suicide. Bullies Bully physically, mentally and online.

There is many ways to stop young violence such as clubs, talking to them, and helping
