Violence

Violence affected my life because when I was coming home one day in Spring, there was a guy like far across the street by the corner. The guy with the gun was pointing the gun at the victim. Then he pulled the trigger at his head. The sound was loud and big. Then later someone called the cops and they came to inspect the crime scene. I didn't know anything that happened after that because my legs got tired so I went to relax in my house.

The causes of violence are guns, guns are a problem because a lot of people die from that. Also drugs, drugs are bad because if you take drugs and drive then you will crash.
