Violence

Violence is bad. People getting shot for no reason. Violence affected my life... Violence has affected my life between a family member. It all started one day my brother was 13 hes 20 years old now it happend a long time ago. My brother was walking home around 7:00pm it was dark sort of silent you can hear cars horns and trucks engines I was inside my house with my mom, sister, dad my brother has a different dad. Anyways he walking home from his friends house my mom called him to come home on his friends phone. His friend said "ok" to my mom when she told him to tell my brother to come home. And out of nowhere we heard 3 gun shots real quick we didnt think it could be my brother so we stayed calm but it sounded really close to our house as far as my brothers friends house about a minute away from our house. My brother ran to his friends house when he heard the gun shots then he noticed he got shot he saw blood dripping when he was running he checked himself he saw blood inside his pants and his shirt. Friends house was only 5 seconds away so he was basically closer to his friends house than our house. When he got to his friends apartment he tried to go upstairs to his friends house but he started feeling more pain so he sat down on the apartment stairs. His friend heard someone saying "help" so he opened his house door and saw my brother sitting down with blood all over his pants, shirt. His friend said "Oh my gosh who did this". My brother said "I dont know didnt see their faces. His friend said "I mma call your mom". My brother said "ok hurry". My mom picked up my brothers friend told my mom "My brother got shot 3 times I noticed her face got sad like she got shocked I said "what happend" she didnt answer the next time I asked like 5 seconds after she answered and said "It's your brother he's hurt got shot". I was shocked to hear that my sister was too. My mom ran to get a coat in the closet and ran outside me and my sister followed when we got to the apartment we saw blood all over the stairs my mom said "what happend" my brothers friend said "he said he dosnt know the person he couldnt see nothing". Then my mom said hurry call the ambulance they came 1 minute after we called we heard them coming about 30 seconds away from our house. My mom took me and my sister home from my brothers friends house to our house she said "he'll be friends house was not a separate party so it was basically class to his friends house then one house when he got to his friends apartment he tried to go upstairs to his friends house but he started feeling more pain so he sat down on the couch and started the friend house someone saying "hey" as he opened the door that and said my brother sitting down with bread all over his pants and the friend said "oh my god you did this" my brother said "I don't know didn't see their faces" his friend said "I'm call your mom" my brother said "ok pretty my mom picked up my brother friend told my mom my brother got into a house another the car got and like she got shocked I said "what happened" she didn't answer the next time I asked her seconds after she answered and said "it's your brother he's just got sick" I was shocked to see that my sister was too. My mom was to get a coat in the closet and ran outside the and my sister followed when we got to the apartment she said blood all over the stairs my mom said "what happened" my brother friend said he said to go and know the person he could see nothing then my mom said "hey call the ambulance they come tonight after we called we heard them coming about a second away from our house my mom then heard my sister house from my brother friends house to our house she said "hell no

"OK" I can tell she didn't want me and my sister being worried but we were anyways it was our own brother hurt maybe he can die. We said "bye mami" she went in back of the ambulance and we closed the door and got ready for bed my dad was still asleep from a hard day of work he came a hour earlier than my brother's accident. I said to my sister "do you think he'll be OK". She said "maybe I don't know". We layed down left the light on felt more safe after all that happened we prayed that day because my mom says if something bad ever happens pray if you want. We wanted my brother to be OK so we did pray I was sleepy with the tears I had in my eyes from when I saw my brother hurt. so I closed my eyes so did my sister we fell quick till sleep. Till the next day thank god he was OK and we went to visit him brought him a white teddy bear and balloons.

What can I do about youth violence?

What I can do about youth violence is like when you see it report it to the police tell your mom to report it. And stay away from violence and gangs stay in the right path. you can start a program with your friends and moms to help set it up.

The first part of the report is a general introduction to the project. It describes the objectives and the scope of the work. The second part is a detailed description of the methodology used in the study. This includes a discussion of the data sources, the sampling method, and the statistical techniques employed. The third part of the report presents the results of the study. This is followed by a discussion of the findings and their implications. The final part of the report is a conclusion and a list of references.

The results of the study show that there is a significant difference between the two groups. This difference is statistically significant at the 5% level. The findings suggest that the intervention has a positive effect on the outcome variable. The implications of these findings are discussed in the following section.

Like a bullying Program just that it's for violence but bullying is a type of violence. The Program will let you talk about if you ever had a type of violence in your life tell the story. and if you havent what would you do to prevent it or if you see it what would you do. And thats what I know I can do about youth violence and other people can do.
