

University of Massachusetts Boston

ScholarWorks at UMass Boston

Do the Write Thing, Boston

Breaking the Cycle of Violence

1-1-2015

Do the Write Thing Essay, 2015

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtwt>

Part of the Civic and Community Engagement Commons, Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence Commons, and the Educational Sociology Commons

Recommended Citation

"Do the Write Thing Essay, 2015" (2015). Do the Write Thing, Boston. 378.
<https://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtwt/378>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Breaking the Cycle of Violence at ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. It has been accepted for inclusion in Do the Write Thing, Boston by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. For more information, please contact scholarworks@umb.edu.

Violence

Violence is an act of harm towards another person. Violence is when you or someone else hurts people purposely. Violence can hurt people in many ways, and the damage they cause might never be undone. Violence can also come in many forms, and not all of them are good. Violence can only cause pain and chaos.

What is violence to me,...

To me violence is hurting others in a awful way because you are angry. Violence can hurt someone mentally and physically. Like youth violence, cyber bullying, and fights. All of these things are connected to violence both mentally and physically. Violence is an horrible, horrible act that can influence others to do bad things. Violence is an choice that people

Violence

Violence is an act of force towards another person. Violence is common in our society. Violence can hurt people in many ways, and the damage they cause might never be undone. Violence can also cause a person to feel fear and pain. There are good reasons why we should not use violence.

What is violence to us? To us, violence is hurting others in any way because you are angry. Violence can hurt someone physically and emotionally. With violence, you can hurt people's bodies, minds, and feelings. All of these things are important to violence. You can hurt people's bodies, minds, and feelings. Violence is an act of force towards another person. There are good reasons why we should not use violence.

How has violence affected your life?
Violence affected my life in many ways. For example violence has affected me making me shocked and worried. Last summer my friend, her father and baby brother got in to an accident. My friend was practicing riding on her motorcycle and her father and baby brother was on another. As they were practicing on an safe street suddenly a fast van bumped in to her father's motorcycle.

Because of the hit the bike started to get out of control. Making the motorcycle flip and 'fly' across the street and on to an tree. My friend stopped her motorcycle and ran to help her brother and father. The worst part was that the driver didn't even care, the person just drove off. It was an hit and run, and my friend was alone with no way to call for help.

I was so shocked when I heard what happen. I wish I was there so I could have help. I am so thankful 2

How has violence affected your life?
 Violence affects my life in many ways.
 For example violence has affected my learning, my school work and my social life. I feel sad and I don't want to go to school.
 I am scared of my friends who are practicing boxing and my friends and my father and my mother are on an ambulance that has been on my side since I suddenly feel you brought in to the street.

Because of this I started to get out of control of things the motorcycle, the car and my the street and on to the started the motorcycle and help the father and mother. The but was that the driver didn't into the house just down of. It was about with no way to I was so scared when I about people. I wish I was I wish how but I am so to still have them here with me fully healthy. And I am so grateful that nobody broken any bones at the time.

The accident didn't just affect me but my friend's mom and her family members. Her mom was mad, shocked, and worried. Just imagine how hard it was to see her son all bruised and hurt. I would have been devastated. That is how violence affected my life.

to still have the same and only because the different that nobody
and have at the time.

The accident didn't the dot of Fina's
the family members with shocked and
and give how hard
see her son
that I would have
that's how violent