Violence among the innocent

Violence is NOT something to be proud of. Drugs all over under the ground. Guns, people crying, putting each other down. People everyday do crazy things. Buying fancy cars and a lot of things. You have nothing to show for yourself, your dying on the inside and your bad health. I wonder what the community can do. I have no idea, not even a clue. I look in the paper and I see someone dead. They lay on the stretcher like it was a bed. The mothers stand in silence. People think before they act and stop the violence. Most violence is known ~~for~~ to be a crime such as Rape, Murder, and Abuse. But those people don't know any better, they're just confused. However, like all bad experiences it is possible to turn this experience into a good by developing compassion and empathy for others who have been in this position. But then again...
