

University of Massachusetts Boston

ScholarWorks at UMass Boston

Do the Write Thing, Boston

Breaking the Cycle of Violence

1-1-2015

Do the Write Thing Essay, 2015

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtwt>

Part of the Civic and Community Engagement Commons, Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence Commons, and the Educational Sociology Commons

Recommended Citation

"Do the Write Thing Essay, 2015" (2015). Do the Write Thing, Boston. 413.
<https://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtwt/413>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Breaking the Cycle of Violence at ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. It has been accepted for inclusion in Do the Write Thing, Boston by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. For more information, please contact scholarworks@umb.edu.

Violence in my life

Violence is everywhere and all around us. There are lots of causes of violence and that's why it happens everyday. Violence can be stopped at some points but people decide to watch and record it. I have seen violence in movies, videos, and one time on my street.

On September 1, 2008 it was my brother's birthday. He had turned 6 years old and we were all happy. At around 9:00 my mom's boyfriend went to the corner store with his two friends. We waited for him to get back and suddenly we heard boom! boom! boom! We all looked at each other as our eyes got bigger and butterflies filled my stomach. I looked out the window and I seen two people laid across the floor. One of them had on a white shirt and I had remembered my mom's boyfriend had left to go to the store in a white shirt.

My next door neighbor had rung the bell and told my mom in a shaky voice "your boyfriend got shot!" She told me and my siblings to stay in the house as she ran outside crying. All we did was look out the window and waited for the ambulance to arrive. When they took my mom's boyfriend and his friend to the hospital my mom ran upstairs

2008-09-15
The first part of the book is a history of the book. It starts with the first edition in 1951 and goes through the various editions and revisions. The author discusses the changes made to the book over the years and the reasons for these changes. The book is a classic and has been a staple of the curriculum for many years.

The second part of the book is a collection of essays and articles. These essays discuss the book's impact on the field of education and its role in shaping the curriculum.
The author also discusses the book's influence on the development of the curriculum and the role of the teacher.
The book is a classic and has been a staple of the curriculum for many years.
The author discusses the changes made to the book over the years and the reasons for these changes. The book is a classic and has been a staple of the curriculum for many years.

THE END

000218

pasting back and fourth saying "oh my god he just got shot" she called my aunt so that she can come and watch me and my siblings so she can go to the hospital.
When my aunt came my mom went straight to the hospital. We tried to call my mom to see if he was okay but she had no service there. we got worried because we were thinking that he was going to die. My aunt wanted us all to go to sleep but we couldn't stop thinking about what had happen. We all just wanted a call that he was going to be okay. But we didn't get any call so we had no choice but to go to sleep.
The next day we had woke up and almost everyone on the street was in my house because they all wanted to know if he was fine. My mom came home and she looked like she been crying all night. She had told us that he was going to be fine and that they took the bullet out of him. We were all relieved and wanted to go see him. We couldn't see him until he was in a better condition. But we all knew he was okay and that's all we wanted to hear.
Violence has affected my life because I can still picture the two bodies laying on the floor. We have to put a stop to violence and we have to do it now or more people are going to get hurt.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and mostly illegible due to the quality of the scan and the handwriting.

1812003

The causes of youth violence is stuff like gangs and drugs. In this case the cause was guns. What we can do to stop violence is help get rid of gangs and guns off the streets and also taking away drugs. There would be less violence in the streets these days.

Handwritten notes, mostly illegible due to blurriness and bleed-through. Some faint words like "STUDY" and "MATH" are visible.

0002182