New England Journal of Public Policy Guidelines for Contributors

Please adhere to the following guidelines when preparing an article for the journal.

1. Length of article, not including figures, tables, endnotes, and appendixes, should be approximately 24 to 40 DOUBLE-SPACED pages of 300 words per page, or 7,000 to 12,000 words. Please forward 3 COPIES of the manuscript to the Managing Editor. Once a manuscript is accepted for publication, authors are expected to provide a diskette copy of the manuscript on Microsoft Word or WordPerfect. DOS, Windows, and Mac platforms are all acceptable.

2. Place each figure and table on a separate page, indicating where in the article it should be inserted. Include below each one, when pertinent, a full note labeled Source, crediting the originator of the data. Should permission to reprint material from the source be necessary, request it and the desired credit line from the copyright holder, in writing, and submit it with the article. Should the methodology of the article require explanation, place it on separate double-spaced pages under the heading Methodology.

3. Provide an abstract — a short summary of the article — of about 150 words, double-spaced, labeled Abstract, as well as a one-line author identification. The latter should include professional title(s) and affiliation(s). For articles by multiple authors, identify each one.

Example: Shaun O'Connell, professor of English, University of Massachusetts Boston, specializes in contemporary Irish and American literature.

4. Notes must appear at the end of the article. It is especially important that these also be DOUBLE-SPACED. When possible, place mathematical formulas in the endnotes. Publication data for citations from a book must include, in the following sequential order: full first name or initials and last name of author(s), editor, compiler, translator; full title, including subtitle, of the work; editor's name if given in addition to author; city of publication; year of publication; and pertinent page number(s).

For example:

Robert Frost, "The Gift Outright," in The Poetry of Robert Frost, edited by Edward Connery Lathem (New York: Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1975), 348.

Richard E. Neustadt, Presidential Power (New York: Wiley, 1960), 24.

Publication data for citations from an article in a periodical must include, in the following sequential order: full first name or initials and last name of author(s); full title, including subtitle of article; full name of periodical/journal, including volume and issue numbers; and pertinent page number(s).

For example:

Shaun O'Connell, "The Infrequent Family: In Search of Boston's Literary Community," Boston Magazine 67, no. 1 (January 1975): 44-47.

5. The journal uses shortened references rather than op. cit. For a book, include last name(s) of author(s); short title containing key word(s) of main title; and page number(s) of reference. For a periodical article, include last name(s) of author(s); short title of article; and page number(s).

For example:

Frost, "The Gift Outright," 348.

Neustadt, Presidential Power, 24.

O'Connell, "The Infrequent Family," 44-47.

6. We are happy to answer any questions you may have about these guidelines. Please address queries and manuscripts to:
