- = 3:15P.M. University Film Series presents "The Connection" by Shirley Clark. To be held in University Auditorium. Open to all University-Free.

"Like the play by Jack Gilber the film deals with an unusual theme in a non-conventional and exceptionally frank manner. Its subject is drug addiction and its locale is a Manhattan loft apartment where eight addicts are gathered waiting for their "Connection" to make a heroin delivery. To make payment for the delivery, they have allowed a would-be documentary film-maker to photograph them while they play jazz and relate anecdotes about themselves and their backgrounds!"

Wednesday, February 21

- = 3:15P.M. University Film Series presents "Paths Of Glory" by Stanley Kubrick.

"At a time when many films are sentimentalizing and even glorifying the slaughter of World War I, Stanley Kubrick's "Paths Of Glory" explodes with a barrage of realism. The director is brutally earnest in novelist Humphrey Cobb's story about a French army caught between German gunfire and the sadistic ambitions of its commanding general. Forced to retreat, the army is disgraced and three soldiers are tried and executed for cowardice as scapegoats for official blundering. The motion picture's impact is underscored by the fact that it was banned in France for its brutal honesty!"

= 5:30 P.M. Student Council Meeting. Room, 1-0322
All students invited.

Saturday, February 24
