Violence Needs to Stop

Anger doesn't need to be taken out on people or children. Guns and drugs are not cool.

If you want respect, disrespecting people isn't going to help you gain any respect.

Kids should act like kids not like a grown person.

Parents should only let their children see the things they want them to see. Violence has really changed my life.

In the summer I can't go outside and play.

In the summer people get shot and people rob each other.

But people also do love each other.

Going to the park is better than bullying somebody.

Bulling somebody emotionally and physically it is the same, this affects how the children grow up and act.

A way to stop violence is to tell a teacher or a grown up.

The main cause of youth violence is kids that have been abused.

Abused children usually take their temper out on smaller kids.

When children have to keep something in they hit and start fights.

When you hit somebody you earn a bad reputation for yourself.

When you do bad things to people you are going to hang out with the wrong crowd.

A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH
