Violence Poem

You're constantly hearing lies when you are young.

They tell you that the world is full of wonderful things.

But that's just what you want to hear.

People want to feel special and be unique.

The truth is hidden in then picture that we paint.

Insignificant people like to pity themselves and dump it on others causing them to hold the weight and suffer.

The people who suffer are ashamed to speak so they hide their words and keep it a secret.

Unfortunate children are forced to walk the streets of profanity and the alleys with the shadows of gangs and for them it's normal.

Let's put out the fire within us so that the world could be a little at ease.

Let's start by using our words instead of our hands.

So be an open book and speak how you feel in guarantee you that you're not alone.
