Youth Violence Essay

Violence has affected my life in many ways. Especially youth violence. I can't go outside and walk down the street and not be afraid that my life is in jeopardy. Ways you could avoid this from happening is to mind your own business and don't get involved. The more you get involved the more of a target you are. Also, because you can never know who your real friend is know a days. There are people that will lie right in your face, and you won't even know. So be careful who you talk to. Never talk to strangers. Don't get into somebodys care you don't know too well. My mom always told me you go to school, to an education not to make friends. Dont tell people your personal business. Be careful of what you put on the internet. Personally, I hate facebook its not safe at all. People can hack into your account, take your personal information and, stalk you down and might even kill you. No social networks are safe today. Cyber bullying is horrible people commit suicide, thats how bad it is. You don't meet a lot of nice people today probably because, they think others will walk all over them. I think police officers should be the only ones that should own guns .If you do drugs especially when you're young you could go to jail. Also, you should look after you siblings and take care of them because at some point they took care of you even the younger ones. But you should still look after them because it's your responsibility. Even if you have older siblings. You still have to live with them. They may be annoying at times but you still love them. You have to keep them safe make sure they aren't being bullied. But you also need to make sure you aren't being bullied because this can lead to youth violence, such as suicide. Plus it doesn't feel good to be in a bad situation. Especially one having to do with violence. It makes you feel scared. I know I wouldn't want to be in that kind of situation. So, some ways to get out of it is by not paying attention to the bad stuff going on, not to get involved, and mind your own business. Those are the things that you need to do to avoid youth violence. Youth Violence is bad you should never do it or never get involved with it. It is a bad thing to do you could get in serious trouble. it is never good. Especially if you're a kid because youth violence is never good. If you are getting bullied you should tell an adult, teacher, or parent. It's not cool. That's why you have to look out for your siblings and friends. So if you see this ever happening speak up. But anyways lets get back to youth violence.

That's what i have to say about youth violence.
