The John W. McCormack Graduate School of Policy Studies is named for the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives from 1962 to 1971. John W. McCormack was born in South Boston, less than a mile from the University of Massachusetts Boston Harbor Campus. The McCormack Graduate School represents the university's commitment to public policy through applied policy research, particularly on issues of concern to New England, graduate education in policy studies, and public service.

The New England Journal of Public Policy is published by the John W. McCormack Graduate School of Policy Studies, University of Massachusetts Boston. Subscriptions are $40 per year for libraries and institutions and $20 per year for individuals. Manuscripts and correspondence should be sent to the New England Journal of Public Policy, John W.
