Violence. This is something that is harmful to anyone and anything, including yourself.

Violence has multiple consequences to it. For example, if you're in school and you fight with someone physically, you will most likely get suspended, your behavior could go against your record, and you're basically wasting your time fighting over something you could have resolved with your words and reasoning.

Another thing about violence is that if someone ends up in the hospital, you could end up in jail, or you may end up in the hospital yourself. Your parents will be disappointed/ashamed of you and it can also put your parents in trouble for the actions you've done and the commotion you've caused.
