Stop The Violence

One day I was walking home from school and saw a group of teenagers following another teenager into a dark alley-way. First I heard a scream, then I heard a slam, following a plea for help. I looked around if anyone else could do something, but there was no one.

I knew if I stepped in I would get beat up also. I couldn't do anything for him, I felt horrible. I couldn't call the cops because I didn't have my phone with me. He just had to take the beating.
