Get Bullies out of This World

A fictional story about a young boy

“Mom please don’t make me go to school again, I don’t want to go, I promise, you know how I feel, pleeease!” Xavier got cut off. “Just tell me what is going on, I will talk to the principal,” said his mom. “I got a tummy ache, just please it hurts badly!!” “Honey, this is the third day in a row you have had a stomach ache. You have to go to school. Now go you are going today. End of discussion, you are gonna miss the bus! Go.” Xavier walked on his door and on to the to the bus. “Hey loser, what took you so long!” yelled the bully. “Did you do my darn homework.” “I forgot I will do it right now.” Dave (The Bully) got up and punched him in the face, and Xavier immediately hit the ground, in tons of pain, got knocked out.

“Son, wake up. Come on boy, open them eyes,” said Marvin the bus driver. “Huh, what, who are you? Where am I?” Xavier woke up. “What happened boy, tell me, please.” “I fell asleep, on the floor, it won’t happen again, I promise.” He ran off the bus, but noticed a facemask on the bus drivers seat. Xavier snatched it, and put it on. He walked down the school hallway, hiding his face. “Hey weenie, get your tiny butt over here,” yelled Dave. “I’m sorry I punched your eye, this time I will punch your stomach.” Bam, the bully punched Xavier and he fell to his knees. The bully pulls out a cigarette, and lights it. He threatens to burn Xaviers body, and Xavier gets up and runs all the way home.

He goes home and goes to the kitchen to grab a knife. Running up the stairs, Xavier, slips and drops the knife. All you could here is crack, Xaviers arm broke in half. Xavier becomes unconscious. Barely moving, he wakes up, after about two hours of being unconscious. He grabs the knife, and runs all the way to school. “Dave, look what you’ve done to me. Broke my arm, picked on me everyday since kindergarden, and made me kill myself." Xavier puts the knife to his chest. "Xavier wai----" he was cut off. It was all over. Xavier killed himself right there, in front of everyone. It was a gruesome scene, many students were crying, or in shock. Finally, Dave went to Xavier's body, and said "I'm sorry bro." Dave grabbed the knife out of his chest. It was the end of times for Dave, too. Two students died that day, all because of bullying. Xavier's parents ended up killing themselves, and Dave's as well. After being on the news, it shocked the world.

On Earth, from that day on, everyone was nice to each other. No crime, no bullying, no terrorism, it was just an amazing place.

Many boys around the world will kill themselves unless bullying stops not tomorrow, not a month, right now!!!!!!
