

University of Massachusetts Boston

ScholarWorks at UMass Boston

Do the Write Thing, Boston

Breaking the Cycle of Violence

1-1-2014

Do The Write Thing Essay, 2014

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtwt>

Part of the Civic and Community Engagement Commons, Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence Commons, and the Educational Sociology Commons

Recommended Citation

"Do The Write Thing Essay, 2014" (2014). Do the Write Thing, Boston. 136.
<https://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtwt/136>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Breaking the Cycle of Violence at ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. It has been accepted for inclusion in Do the Write Thing, Boston by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. For more information, please contact scholarworks@umb.edu.

Dakailla and Neavah were best friends and they were the most popular girls in the 10th grade. They were so popular because they bullied other people and they were so scared of getting bullied they just tried to be friends with them. They were especially mean to a girl named Bonnie; she was bullied in school, and on the Internet social media. Bonnie was not popular, she had no friends and she was very bright. One day Neavah went to far with Bonnie, and everything changed.

Scene One
Outside In The Yard

Neavah: Hey Dakailla girl.

Dakailla: Hey.

Neavah: You want to come over later we could make fun of the losers on my block.

Dakailla: No, I don't think I can come over I have other more important things to do tonight.

Neavah: Okay Fine! That's how you want to play, bye then! (She walks away angry)

Scene Two
Lunchroom

Dakailla: Neavah! I'm so sorry I was just a little upset this morning.

Neavah: Its okay you are forgiven.

Bonnie: (Bumps into Neavah and knocks her down) I'm so sorry Neavah.

Neavah: Dakailla! Help me up now please!

Dakailla: (helps Neavah) Okay it was an accident, calm down.

Neavah: Your sorry! No your not, but you will be. (Whispers to Bonnie) Meet me at Maknelly park at eight o'clock.

Bonnie: (walks away in terror.)

Dakailla: What did you say to her (she Says in a worried tone.)

Neavah: Nothing but to meet me somewhere later so she can formally apologize for her knocking me on the floor.

Dakailla: Anyway, I asked my mom if we could have a rain check on our plans and it turns out I could come over tonight.

Scene Three
Neavah's House and Maknelly Park

Neavah: Hey you want to go out.

Dakailla: Where?

Neavah: It's a surprise.

Dakailla: The park? This is your big surprise?

Bonnie: (she comes from behind some trees.)

Neavah: (pulls a gun) You want to embarrass me in front of the whole café and walk away and don't give me a sincere apology.

Bonnie: I'm sorry. I didn't mean to push you it was an accident.

Neavah: Your sorry now, I told you that you would be sorry.

Dakailla: Lets all calm down, lower the gun Neavah, you don't want to do anything you'll regret.

Neavah: Don't tell me what to do!!

Dakailla: Okay but she is terrified and she gave you a sincere apology like you wanted.

Bonnie: (weeping) I'm sorry.

Neavah: But she'll tell if I let her go.

Bonnie: I won't tell I swear.

Dakailla: See she won't tell, so lower the gun.

Neavah: (lowers the gun.)

Dakailla why can't we all just get along, we don't have to be friends we just have to get along.

In the end Bonnie really didn't tell anyone about the little encounter in the park. Neavah and Dakailla were still best friends but now there were three very popular girls in school. Neavah, Dakailla, And Bonnie were so popular now not because they were bullies but because they made people laugh. So there was a happy ending for everyone.