Violence isn't the greatest act. Using violence can get you in many problems.

Why is violence so bad? It is bad because
a. violence leads to suicide b. violence can hurt other people including you c. violence hurts your future like your records. It could leave you to jail for murdering or any type of violence. people who use violence aren't the most friendly people. Don't you want to be that person that has thousands of friends? If you want to avoid being violence don't play video games that has violence like shooting killing and any harm like GTA, grand theft auto. Grand theft auto is a game about stealing cars and killing or shooting people. Bad video games influences you to change your personality It will mess up your mind. Another tip is to be kind to your friends you will earn more attention and become the person people will chase after. so do you still wanna be a violence person? No be peaceful, nice and kind, kind is key it is a key to life you will be successful and earn the amount of friends and achieve in many things.
