Youth violence affects everyone in a way

Youth violence is not just violence with weapons

Youth violence can be expressed through drug abuse

Youth violence can be expressed through bullying

Youth violence is youth hurting each other in many ways

Youth violence is not only bad but morally wrong

Youth violence has affected me because I see it everyday

Every day I see people swearing at each other in hurtful ways

On the news youths are constantly involved with crimes

Youth are constantly getting recruited to gangs

Youths are getting involved with drugs everyday

Where I live I see people with daggers

Youths are also fighting and posting fights on the internet

One cause of youth violence is gadgets

The youth will do what it takes to get the latest iPhone

The youth will rob someone to get money to buy the new Xbox 1

I seen people get very mad and angry because of a whole made in their Gucci belt

Youths want the limited things, the things that are hard to get

They want things that other don't have

I can't do much about youth violence

I can stop youth violence for myself and maybe my friends

I can't stop youth violence for Dorchester, Boston or Massachusetts

But what I can do is prevent youth violence with people around me

But if other people do what I can do and prevent it from them and their friends

That how youth violence can reduce into a smaller thing

For youth violence to stop it not going to be only one youth stopping it

I don't think that it going to be stopped by adults to

I think it needs to be stopped by the youth itself
