Violence need to stop, it is need safe, but it happens a lot, at school, in neighborhoods and in streets.

Think violence need to stop because there is a lot of people getting hurt, bully and getting in fights

On your way to a class, if you see someone getting bullied call for help and don't get in the middle of it.

Life would be better without violence. Without violence this world would be happier and safer.

End Violence! We just need to work together to end violence. If people stop threatening, getting in to gangs and bullying violence wouldn't happen to much!

Never bully some one, or do something to hurt or offend them because those can prevent violence

Every day there is violence, but it's our community that can
