Untitled Sadness

By Robyn Blacardi

Daddy's screaming
Mommy's crying
It's almost like dreaming
But it's almost like dying

Tears falling like rivers
Turn into giant pools of water
So cold that everyone shivers
And drowning each daughter

Slowly, yet not silently
Daddy leaves
Shouting ever so violently
Our hearts are taken by thieves

Hours pass
Car pulls into the drive way
Every low on gas
My best bet is to stay away

I know it's going to start again
They begin to shout
As loud as a morning hen
And I am told to get out

I play music to suffocate the voices
To drowned
Hateful word choices
I get lost in the beautiful sound

At night

They resolve

I can sleep tight

My mind can dissolve
