The Bully Who Could

There once was a bully
And his gang of friends,
Who picked on the kids
That were less fortunate than them.

The bully would grind his foot into the kids' shoes,
Steal their homework,
And when picking teams in sports
He was the one to choose.

He was the bully who could.

One day when the bully was Playing with a toy he had stole,
A teacher came to him and said,
" I know what you did in the gym."

That day in in the gym,
When it was just him,
He had written on the wall,
"I shall bully all."

He was in big trouble that day,
He knew no one would like him

For ruining the gym,
So it he knew it would be a lonely life for him.

The bully who could
Was now the bully who couldn't

The bully who couldn't make friends,
Because he was a bully
And kids don't like bullies
So they didn't like him.

The bully knew what he had to do,
Apologize, apologize to all the Kids he had mistreated.
And he did.

He is now a bully who could,
No not bully, a friend who could.
A friend who could make even more friends
And always be nice.
And he was.
