A Threat of Violence Doesn't Taunt. It Haunts

A Threat of violence doesn't taunt

It Haunts

Some people kill

For a thrill

On the streets

And in the hills

No violence, is easy and it is great

It is like a giant piece of cake

Violence is a very big fright

You see it during the day and night

Never set something to light

Because someone could lose a life

Violence isn't appreciated

It makes things lot's more complicated

If you ever see it call the cops

Or use a radio, whatever you got

To keep people safe

From those who are not

In the alleys and all the lots

I don't know what gives people these thoughts

To exacerbate some, and then do it a lot

So when you see it, give the police a call

They know what's for the people and them all

And you need to know that violence isn't cool

It is only harmful and cruel

And once we keep from all the tragedies

Everybody will feel happy.
