Teens & Violence

Teens can avoid getting into violence. By playing sports/getting active at home and school.

Teens can also study more do homework things that can help get better grades.

Some teens can just go home and study and not be on the streets.

Most teens are smart and play sports so they don't have to be in the middle of violence. Violence gets teens into bad trouble that can mess up their whole life. But some teens just behave and don't get in trouble.
