Violence

Violence was never the answer now or back then! There's multiple things that cause youth violence, alcohol, pay back, and drugs. Why alcohol? Well because most parents come home drunk or get drunk in the house and start mistreating their children for no reason. Why payback? Think about it, most of the times kid's/teen's borrow money, and then they don't payback what they borrowed. The teens/kids get mad, they want their money. They decide to hurt the kid that borrowed leading to violence. Why drugs? It's easy. Drugs can cause people to misbehave, it's basically the same thing as alcohol. Drugs can make kids' parents to start acting crazy and doing things that they will not regret! You see drugs unlike alcohol can damage your life forever, you'll get addicted and for the rest of their lives they'll act crazy and do horrible stuff to their kids and sometimes other people.  the house and start mistreating their children for no reason. why parents? They don't know of the time kids learn from parents. And then they start talking what they know. The behavior get mad, they want their money.
 The decide to put the kid that money leading to violence. Why drugs? It has affected my life. When I was little, like around 4 my uncle used to mistreat my brother and me. One day my brother came home from his friend's house and my uncle told him to wash the dishes clean the house and then to stay in his room. My brother did all those things except for staying in his room, he said it was too early for him to sleep, he also said he was tired of him telling him what to do. I was tired of it too he hit me. When I didn't want to go to sleep or I started crying. That day my brother confronted him and after my mom came she called the police and my uncle got arrested. We can change all of this though! We need to make these bad people recognize what they're doing to people and their kids. I think a program for all those people should be made, and also sometimes those parents should make sure their kids aren't borrowing money. Parents need to go to programs or get help for their problems.

has offered me life when I was little. I've learned a lot from each to understand my brother and me. Our don't my brother come home from his Parents' house and put some furniture to clean the chairs and the house and then to start in his room. My brother did all those things except for staying in his room. He said it was to good for him to sleep. He also said he was tired of him telling him what to do. I was tired of it too. he hit me when I didn't want to go to sleep or I started crying. That day my brother (probably him and sister my mom came she covered the house and my mom got arrested. We got change all of this though! We need to break these bad habits because what these things are for. And that is. I think a program for all these people should be made. And also some times those parents should make out there kids start learning before. Parents need to go to programs or get help for their problems.

That is what I think parents should do to prevent violence.
