Violence

When Violence comes to my mind I think about people getting hurt or mistreated. When people get hurt or beaten down by someone I feel bad because that person when they get bullied he or she might get embarrassed and he or she can't defend himself.

My story is about one day in August I was over my friend's house and my friend's dad was working on his car and he wasn't able to fix it so he just flipped and began to abuse my friend and I didn't know what to do so I went to my mom and my mom just picked the phone and called the cops. When they arrived at my friend's house my friend had cuts and bruises all over his body. The cops saw a drug test and he was ~~there~~ taking something and that caused him to stop and he got 6 month sentence.
