Violence

Violence can cause death and scars inside and outside people. Violence has affected my life because when I was little I used to go to my cousin house and one day his step-sister didn't want him to come to sleep over. And then he got mad so he threw a glass cup at his sister, and he must of hit her. Few years later he started to skip school and went to watch fights.

Violence cause young people to die. Once I heard that some people were going to shot some for someone pair of Jordans. And my brother friend got shot by his own brother because he was playing with a gun. It doesn't mean to press the trigger.

I can take action when I see youth violence because I don't like seeing people fighting then going to jail for gang and fights because when their like 13-16 and in gang which leads to fights then shootouts then jail.
