"Violence"

B715101

A victim of violence, that has not been me.
Love, shelter, protection and truth has kept me free.
Free from guns, knives and police,
Drugs, crackheads, prostitution on these streets.

My family has experienced violence,
Witnessed and some consumed.
They live their lives day to day,
Hoping it will change very soon.

Boston had a tragic day, when the two bombers came out
to play.
Many people lost their lives.
It was sad to hear a family member has died.

IF we team up and say what we think.
In to there head our words will sink.
Hope is just that...
A prayer on bended knee.
God is our hope, he has let me be.
