Violence

In second grade one of my friend got into a fight 2 times in the same day he was extremely ~~angry~~ ^{angry} he looked like he was going to kill someone it was really intense in class time because he kept on braking his pencil on his desk like he was pretending to stab someone and he did it almost through the whole class, every body thought that he was insane and made fun of him, but it just made him more angry at the person he was mad at. the next day at 2'o clock, it was recess when we got outside he went straight to the stone where people sit he saw the kid he was mad at the whole time and when he was walking over to him saw a random rusty nail laying on the floor and picked it up and I saw what he was about to do so I tried to stop him before it was too late, but then he just stabbed me in the wrist twice and went to the boy and hit him in the arm and when teachers tried to stop him and the boy from fighting, before they can get to him he stabbed the boy in the leg twice and got pinned by a teacher and after that I never saw him again and he got expelled.
