Violence is bad
Violence is a hurtful thing. Violence happens every day and any time. Every day I hear in the news is violence happening everywhere. Violence is a bad thing. Violence is caused by gangs members and bad people. Drugs, alcohol, is caused by violence. If you see people drunk wondering around get away from him or she because they might do something to you. Violence is mean. Violence is caused by people that they think that violence is the way to solve problems. Instead you can talk about it not fighting and shooting people. And stabbing people. Globally violence resulted in the death of 1.28 million people in 2013 up from 1.13 million in 1990. In Africa out every 100,000 people each year an estimated 60.9 die a violence death. Gunfire kills ten children a day in the United States. Violence is bullying. Guns, knife and

Unit 1: Introduction

The first part of the course is an introduction to the subject. It covers the basic concepts and terminology used in the field. This includes a discussion of the history of the subject and the current state of research. The second part of the course is a detailed study of the theory. This involves a thorough examination of the mathematical models and the physical principles underlying the phenomena. The third part of the course is a practical application of the theory. This involves a series of experiments and calculations designed to test the predictions of the theory. The final part of the course is a review of the material covered in the previous sections. This provides an opportunity for students to consolidate their knowledge and to discuss any remaining questions.

Violence is bad
Other things caused violence.
Guns, people crying, putting each other down. People every day do crazy things. Violence has many causes, including frustration, exposure to violent media, violence in the home or neighborhood and a tendency to see other people's actions as hostile even when they're not.
