Do The Right Thing

By: [REDACTED]

I was affected by being neglected
By those who treated me wrong
I cried
I sighed
The pain I couldn't bare
I was afraid to stare at the little girl
I saw in me so weak so sad
To stand to those who were wrong
But I knew the truth
They think it's right to treat others wrong
They laugh and laugh
What do we do we cry

I'll try to stand for what's right
No matter what
I'll fight, fight, fight
For those in need
We should all rise as one
Together we are strong
If you are afraid
Don't fear
We have your back
But I also fear to face those who treated me wrong
But we know who fear the most, those who are wrong
When they face the truth they fear what is yet to come

What else can we do to stop what's wrong
Who do we tell
How would we need to act
What are our options
How do we face those who are wrong
What will we need to do
What will we say
Who will help
There are so many questions that can be answered
If you only act
Take a step forward
Never back
We are the only ones to stop youth violence
These are the ways to stop violence
These are the questions in mind
Think and act that's all you need to do
Two easy steps

Do The Right Thing

But other might think it's hard

Just ask for help it's never hard

Remember we are the only ones to stop youth violence
