violence.

Death and Fights come to mind when I think about violence. Violence has affected my life in many ways. One way violence has affected my life is that I'm always going to have to look over my shoulder. when I'm walking by myself in my neighborhood. Because of all the gangs and violence in my neighborhood. sometimes I'm afraid to walk by myself in neighborhood. especially a girl alone in a rough neighborhood.

Violence has impacted my life by taking the people I care about away from me. either they go to jail or worse they would get killed. For the little things they do, for example if your from health st you can't go certain neighborhoods because of gang related violence. That's how violence affect my life.
