Violence

Violence has effected my life because it's what made me the person I am today. The person I am today is protective, thoughtful, and very worried. All I want to be is successful, but many things are in my way and one is violence.

There are many causes of my life because of violence, but my main one is friends. The things they do and say are violent. A female and I are, well were very close til I have done some thing wrong I guess and she started telling everyone negative things about me and was talking trash. I thought was to beat her up, but I realized that, that would get you no where. So I just ignore it.

What I do to deal with violent students in my class is to ignore them and wait till they get older so I can laugh.
