SUMMER STUDY IN JAPAN (cont.)

The program will take place July 9 to August 11 in Tokyo. Students desiring further information and an application blank should contact Professor Starr, Room 1222 or write directly to Professor H. L. Varley, 401 Eugene Field House, Amherst, (545-2882), who is co-director of the program. In addition to the courses, there will be week-end trips and afternoon visits to theatres, concerts, artists' studios, folk art centers, factories, temples and gardens. At the close of the academic program, from about the 14th to the 29th of August, there will be an extended visit to the Kyoto-Nara area, before returning to the U.S. on August 30. Students will make their own arrangements to reach Oakland by June 30. Approved applicants will depart from Oakland on a jet flight on July 1, and will return from Tokyo to Oakland on August 30. All classes will be held in English. —

Summer Study Fee--The summer study fee will be $1300 and includes tuition for six credits and administrative and extension fees. All applicants admitted to the summer study in Japan Program will — qualify for the air Trans-Pacific transportation under a grant provided by the Japan Society, Inc. of New York. The summer study fee does not include the cost of activities which participants may wish to schedule on their own outside of the summer study program, but it does cover board at the Sophia University for five weeks and two weeks in the Kyoto area. Payment of $150 must accompany application blanks (which may be secured from Prof. Varley) and must be submitted by March 15, there is some leeway on this date, to one of these persons. The remaining $1,150 is due by April 15.

Courses-- Every student will be expected to elect for credit two courses.
