

1-1-2014

Do The Write Thing Essay, 2014

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtw>

 Part of the Civic and Community Engagement Commons, Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence Commons, and the Educational Sociology Commons

Recommended Citation

"Do The Write Thing Essay, 2014" (2014). Do the Write Thing, Boston. Paper 40.
<http://scholarworks.umb.edu/dtw/40>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Breaking the Cycle of Violence at ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. It has been accepted for inclusion in Do the Write Thing, Boston by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at UMass Boston. For more information, please contact library.uasc@umb.edu.

2/4/14 Do The Write Thing-

Pain... What is pain? Pain is an unbearable emotion. Why must we feel pain? We feel pain because of love!

While doing some research on violence stories for this particular essay, I came upon a short story about a young girl named Julia. At the age of three, she witnessed her dad shoot her mom and then shoot himself. This dramatic incident changed her. She was found sleeping in a pool of blood in the middle of the bodies of her parents. As time passed, she continued playing the same scenes of her parent's death over and over in her head dragging her straight into a deep forest of depression.

Why do we hurt others? It's because everyday we're letting our anger grow and one day explode! When someone is crying or feeling alone, an adult or even a kid needs to go and console that person, if not, those tears will turn into hatred... Revenge!

What can we do about all this hatred? We need to reduce all risk factors leading to violence! Tears, fights, argues, swears... all that trash is our responsibility now. If we want peace then we need to act before those tears turn into war!