Guidelines for Authors

Authors must adhere to the following:

1. Length of manuscript: 24 to 40 double-spaced pages, and italic fonts only. Papers accepted for publication must be in Word or PDF format.

2. Place each figure and table at the end of the paper. Include when pertinent. Place captions at the end of the figure or table. Place all formatting and text within the body of the file. Do not include any additional information on the cover sheet.

3. Provide an Abstract — one-line author identification statement. More than one author

Example: Shaun O’Connell, Contemporary Irish

4. Endnotes, which appear double-spaced, and plaid but not bold. Author-date style: titles must be in italics, subtitle in regular text. Publication data for cited sources include last name of author(s), title, book, journal, date, and page numbers. For example:

Guidelines for Contributors

Authors must adhere to the following guidelines when preparing a manuscript for the journal.

1. Length of manuscript, not including figures, tables, endnotes, and appendices, should be approximately 24 to 40 double-spaced pages of 300 words per page, or 7,000 to 12,000 words, in roman and italic fonts only. Please forward three copies of the manuscript to the editor. Once a manuscript is accepted for publication, authors are responsible for providing an electronic copy of the work.

2. Place each figure and table on a separate page and indicate where it should appear in the manuscript. Include, when pertinent, a full note, labeled Source, crediting the originator of the data. Should permission to reprint material from the source be necessary, request it and the desired credit line from the copyright holder, in writing, and submit it with the manuscript. Should your methodology require explanation, place it on a separate double-spaced page with the heading Methodology. Please include information on the computer programs used to create your figures and tables. Submit them in separate electronic files.

3. Provide an Abstract — a short summary of the article — of about 150 words, double-spaced, as well as a one-line author identification. The latter should include professional title(s) and affiliation(s). For articles by more than one author, provide an ID for each.

Example: Shaun O'Connell, professor of English, University of Massachusetts Boston, specializes in contemporary Irish and American literature.

4. Endnotes, which appear at the end of the text with the heading Notes, must be formatted in humanities style, double-spaced, and placed in a separate file. Under no circumstances should they also be embedded in the text. Author-date style with reference list is unacceptable. See sample citations below. Book and periodical titles must be in italics, never underlined. When possible, place mathematical formulas in the endnotes.

Publication data for citations from a book must include, in the following order: full first name or initials and last name of author(s); editor(s), compiler(s), translator(s); full title, including subtitle, of the work; editor's name if given in addition to author; city of publication; year of publication; and pertinent page number(s). For example:

Publication data for citations from a periodical must include, in the following order: full first name or initials and last name of author(s); full title, including subtitle, of article; full name of periodical/journal, including volume and issue numbers, date, and pertinent page number(s). For example:

5. The journal uses shortened references rather than op. cit. For a book, include last name(s) of author(s); short title containing key word(s) of main title; and page number(s) of reference. For an article in a periodical, include last name(s) of author(s); short title of article; and page number(s). For example:

Neustadt, Presidential Power, 24.
