The John W. McCormack Institute of Public Affairs is named for the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives from 1962 to 1971. John W. McCormack was born in South Boston, less than a mile from the University of Massachusetts Boston Harbor Campus. The McCormack Institute represents the university's commitment to applied policy research — particularly on issues of concern to New England — and to public affairs education and public service.

The New England Journal of Public Policy is published by the John W. McCormack Institute of Public Affairs, University of Massachusetts Boston. Subscriptions are $40 per year for libraries and institutions and $20 per year for individuals. Manuscripts and correspondence should be sent to the New England Journal of Public Policy, John W. McCormack Institute of Public Affairs, University of Massachusetts Boston, 100 Morrissey Boulevard, Boston, Massachusetts 02125-3393 (telephone 617-287-5550; fax: 617-287-5544). See Guide for Contributors on inside back cover. *"When lilacs last in the dooryard bloom'd,
And the great star early droop'd in the western sky in the night,
I mourn'd, and yet shall mourn with ever-returning spring."*
—Walt Whitman

This issue of the New England Journal of Public Policy is dedicated to the memory of the late Congressman John Joseph Moakley.
