The John W. McCormack Institute of Public Affairs is named for the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives from 1962 to 1971. John W. McCormack was born in South Boston, less than a mile from the University of Massachusetts at Boston's Harbor Campus. The McCormack Institute represents the University's commitment to applied policy research, particularly on issues of concern to New England, to public affairs education and to public service.

The New England Journal of Public Policy is published twice a year by the John W. McCormack Institute of Public Affairs, the University of Massachusetts at Boston, Boston, Massachusetts. Subscriptions are $20.00 per year for libraries and institutions and $9.00 for individuals. Manuscripts and correspondence should be sent to New England Journal of Public Policy, John W. McCormack Institute of Public Affairs, University of Massachusetts at Boston, Harbor Campus, Boston, MA 02125-3393.
